

Jo McGuire is an advocate for safe and drug free workplaces, families and communities who served on the Taxation, Banking & Civil Law work-group for the Governor's Task Force to regulate Amendment 64 in Colorado due to her expertise in the field of workplace drug and alcohol testing. Jo is the Executive Director of the National Drug and Alcohol Screening Association. She is a national conference speaker, published author and the President and CEO of Five Minutes of Courage. Jo is also the mother of an addict and shares her story with parents of loss, love, hope and healing.