If your payment will not be postmarked by the current deadline, you must pay the higher rate.

Purchase Orders: Official POs are accepted (not Purchase Requisitions) provided the following guidelines are met: POs are a legal document guaranteeing payment but are not considered actual payment. If you submit a PO to CADCA, you are guaranteeing future payment for the full amount of the PO. Upon receipt of the PO, CADCA will email an invoice from which you should submit payment. POs must be received by CADCA via fax or email by the registration deadline to lock in the current rate. POs received after the above deadlines will be returned for adjustment to reflect the current rates. All payments sent via mail must be postmarked by the deadline dates above.
